

PRESENTS ON A BUDGET

Christmas ideas for broke high schoolers this holiday season

Alyssa Cain// alyssacain41@yahoo.com
 Kennedy Miller// kennedy7miller@gmail.com

Getting gifts for the people you care about can be expensive. Teenagers everywhere will be struggling to come up with enough money and ideas this Christmas. To make sure you get a good gift for your friends and family, here are ten affordable and meaningful presents to give this holiday season.

FUZZY SOCKS

Fuzzy socks are the perfect Christmas gift because they're cute, comfortable and cheap. A great place to get comfy socks with festive patterns and designs is Target. You can get fun pairs for around $5 and give them to your friends. To

CHARGERS AND HEADPHONES

Teenagers are constantly losing their earbuds or breaking their phone chargers, so they're always a great gift idea. Stores like Walmart and Target have a wide selection of colorful portable chargers and earbuds for less than $6.

Photos provided by Amazon, Pinterest, and Wordpress

BATH BOMBS

Bath bombs are the perfect gift for your friends. After being placed in water, they fizzle and turn the bath water a variety of colors. Bath bombs can be found at stores like Target or TJ Maxx sold separately for just $3. To complete this present, you could put together a spa gift basket with lotions, scrubs, and soaps.

10 MAKEUP BRUSH SET

This year, makeup brands like Kylie Cosmetics and Anastasia Beverly Hills will be flying off the shelves, and girls are going to need the right brushes to apply their new eye shadows and highlighter. TJ Maxx offers a variety of makeup brushes in sets for $12. To add onto this gift, you can purchase a pack of scrunchies from Claire's and wrap them around the brushes.

BLANKET

A soft blanket is always a great idea, and you can choose from a variety of them at TJ Maxx or Kohl's. Your family and friends could always use a good blanket to cuddle up with, so it's a nice and relatively inexpensive gift. TJ Maxx has holiday blankets for $14.99.

NICE CHOCOLATE

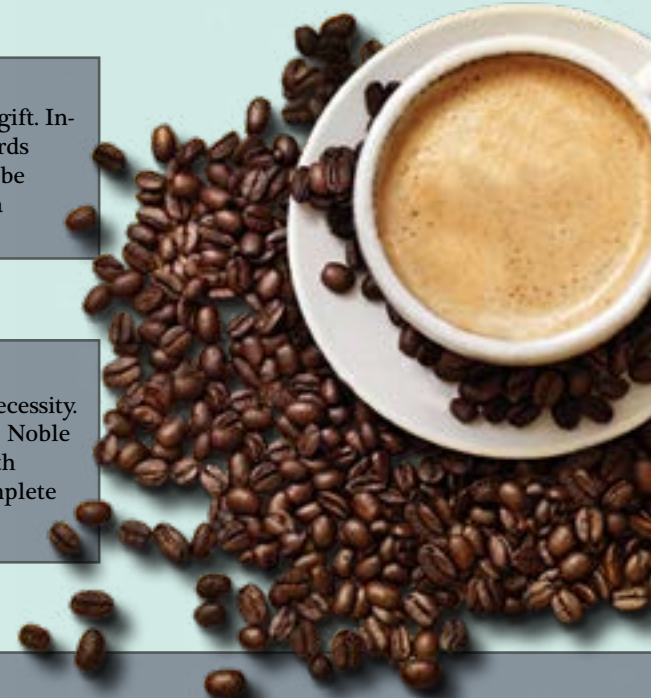

It's the sweetest way to show you care. Buying different types of chocolate from a grocery store or candy store and giving it to a friend is a quick and easy gift idea that they will love. A bag of Ghirardelli milk chocolate and caramel squares costs $4.27 from Walmart.

GIFT CARDS

Some people would prefer getting 'Christmas money' rather than a gift. Instead of just handing this person money, you could purchase gift cards for places like Panera, Starbucks or movie theatres. These cards can be found at CVS and Walmart. To complete this gift, place the card in a small box and wrap it.

COFFEE BEANS

To some, waking up in the morning with a fresh cup of coffee is a necessity. Buy your favorite coffee drinker something new this holiday season. Noble Coffee and Tea sells bags of flavored coffee beans for only $12.50 with flavors like hazelnut crème, salted caramel, and many more. To complete this present, purchase a mug to hold the new coffee.

CANDLES

Candles are perfect for your mom, aunt, or even your friends. Stores like HomeGoods and Target have cheap candles with a wide selection of scents and sizes to choose from. Target has large Cozy Flannel and Pinecone Pumpkin candles for only $10.

SLIPPERS

The cold weather this season has been unforgiving. Help your friends or family warm up by purchasing a pair of fur slippers. This cozy item can be found for less than $15 at DSW.

